SEA HAWKERS BANQUET AND PICNIC

Kenny Easley

The Sea Hawks had their annual banquet and picnic June 8th and 9th. The Star Wars themed banquet was held at the Bellevue Hilton. There were approximately 300 members at the banquet, many of whom dressed in the theme.

Kenny Easley was the guest speaker. He decided not to use the speech he had written and talked from the heart about his feelings for Seattle, the Seattle Seahawks and the 12's. The entire speech is available on You Tube and it is well worth hearing. Kenny also donated several items from his Hall of Fame collection that were auctioned off in a silent auction. The auction raised $2170.

The different chapters brought some amazing raffle prizes and the raffle made $1700. The 50/50 made $385. A picture of Paul Allen, that had been hanging at Seahawks headquarters, was auctioned for $1212 which was donated to the Paul Allen Foundation.

The Rookie of the Year was the punter, Michael Dickson, who was present. He spoke for a few minutes. The Sea Hawker of the Year was Joshua McGovern.

JUNE BUNCO

The charity for the June Bunco is the American Cancer Society. Some of the many things the American Cancer Society does includes providing research money, services to cancer patients such as rides to appointments, Reach to Recovery, Lodging programs and the National Cancer Information Center provides information and support to those facing cancer 24/7 365 days a year by phone or live chat.

The time for the June Bunco is 1:30 pm. Check out the flyer attached for more information.

CENTRAL COUNCIL

The NFL has started a Huddle for 100 to get people involved in community service. There is information attached from the NFL and Central Council explaining what Huddle for 100 is all about.

They would like to get everyone involved. The Sea Hawks already volunteer a lot of hours and work to raise a lot of money. In 2018, members volunteered 9023 hours and raised $271,526. Central Council feels that we can do even better if everyone turns in the hours and money raised volunteering to Yolanda Morgan, the secretary of Central Council. She is keeping records and will update the Seahawks once a quarter. So read the information and if you have any questions ask.

Central Council is also hoping to incorporate Huddle for 100 into any Blue Friday events. There is also a plan to have a National/International clean-up day in October.

Applications are now being taken for volunteering at Touchdown City during the season.

SEA HAWKERS BANQUET AND PICNIC

There were representatives from chapters from as far away as United Kingdom, Honolulu, Germany and South Carolina. Mama Rawls was the DJ for the dancing after the banquet. Everyone had a great time. Thank you, Elise, and all your volunteers for a job well done.

The picnic was held at Crossroads Park also in Bellevue. There were 70+ members who attended the picnic on Sunday. Had a bouncy house, lots of good food and it was great for everyone to get together from the different chapters.

BUNCO

Bunco is continuing. We have been having a good turnout and lots of fun. You don't want to miss it. If you are planning on coming please let Sue Farley know and how many so we can plan the food. Check out the attached flyer.

Huddle for 100 is an NFL initiative that launched at the 2019 NFL Draft and will continue through Super Bowl LIV in Miami. The NFL is celebrating its 100th season and through this NFL100 initiative we will all strive to make meaningful investments in the communities of our fans and inspire the entire NFL family to give back. The goal is to get one million people to give one hundred minutes of their time to community service, totaling 100 million volunteer minutes.

All 32 NFL clubs will host huddles throughout the year and the NFL will drive a season-long competition between clubs. Monthly $5,000 grants to be used for a community initiative will be awarded to top-ranking clubs based on their volunteer minutes. One $100,000 grant will be awarded at the end of the season to the club with the most participation.

The Seahawks are excited to participate in this NFL initiative. We will be hosting our own Huddle for our staff in June. We encourage all 12s, partners, community members, players, coaches and legends to participate in the initiative by creating their own Huddles as well.

Ways to get involved

Personal Huddle – Create your own Huddle for a cause you already support or a cause you want to start backing. Just give 100 minutes of your time to community service.

Do Something Huddle – Need a cause? The NFL has partnered with DoSomething.org, an organization that allows people to give back from anywhere at any time. Visit www.nfl.com/huddlefor100 to learn more.

How to Track Your Huddle

Seahawks Hashtag – Fans are encouraged to track their volunteer minutes by using our team’s Huddle for 100 hashtag - #SeahawksHuddleFor100

Online Form – If you are organizing a larger Huddle, you can submit names and minutes for all attendees by using the form below.

NFL RALLYING FANS TO GIVE 100 MILLION MINUTES OF SERVICE TO COMMEMORATE THE 100TH SEASON

'Huddle for 100' Kicks Off in Nashville During NFL Draft with 'Huddle Against Hunger'

New York, N.Y. – April 15, 2019 – As part of NFL100, the League is inviting fans, players, clubs and employees to join Huddle for 100, an effort to inspire 1 million people to volunteer 100 minutes of their time to make meaningful contributions to their communities.

“Giving back is part of the fabric of our league,” said NFL Commissioner ROGER GOODELL. “From players and Legends, to club and league employees – we have a wide variety of ambassadors working year-round to leave a lasting, indelible impact on the communities in which we live and work. Through Huddle for 100, we hope to rally generations of fans, players, coaches, and the 32 clubs to serve the communities that have supported and sustained us over our first 100 years.”

Huddle for 100 includes four types of “huddles”:

National Huddles: The NFL will host a series of national huddles during major milestones such as the Draft and the Super Bowl, each with a unique theme focusing on giving back to that community in a impactful way. The League’s first national huddle – HUDDLE AGAINST HUNGER – will take place during the 2019 Draft week in Nashville, TN. Huddle Against Hunger will bring together the Titans organization, Draft prospects, players, fans, and community partners for a series of activities including a state-wide food drive and a food packing event. Each activity is centered on fighting hunger and making a lasting impact throughout the state of Tennessee.

Club Huddles: All 32 clubs will host huddles throughout the year, leading up to Super Bowl LIV. These huddles will address a wide variety of causes and bring together communities in the spirit of service. The League will drive a season-long competition between clubs by awarding monthly community-focused prizes to top-ranking clubs based on their number of volunteer minutes. One community-focused grand prize at the end of the season will be awarded to the club with the most fan and player participation. Fans are encouraged to boost their favorite team’s volunteer minutes and help them win by volunteering and using their team’s Huddle for 100 hashtag (e.g. #TitansHuddleFor100).

DoSomething Huddles: The NFL is also teaming up with DoSomething.org, the largest not-for-profit exclusively for young people and social change in the US, so younger fans can get involved in volunteer campaigns from anywhere around the world. “Volunteering time and energy to improve the lives of those around you is an incredible effort from the broader NFL community,” said CARRIE BLOXSON, CMO and Head of Impact at DoSomething.org. “We’re excited to introduce NFL fans to causes that they’re passionate about and give them ways to take action.”

Personal Huddles: Fans can also participate by volunteering for a cause of their choice and sharing their individual volunteer efforts on social media using #NFLHuddleFor100. Starting today, fans can begin participating in Huddle for 100 by visiting www.nfl.com/huddlefor100 to sign up for volunteer opportunities with DoSomething.org or sharing their personal huddles and individual volunteer efforts on social media.

Throughout the Huddle for 100 initiative, the League will give participating fans the chance to win a variety of prizes, including game tickets, team gear or a monetary donation to a charity they select when they track their participation on the Huddle for 100 website. Fans can also share their volunteer efforts on social media using both the #NFLHuddleFor100 and #Sweepstakes hashtags.

Details about future national, club and DoSomething huddles will be announced throughout the NFL100 campaign leading up to the final and largest national huddle at Super Bowl LIV in Miami in February 2020.

Visit www.nfl.com/huddlefor100 or follow #NFLHuddleFor100 to get involved and learn more about Huddle for 100. Visit www.nfl.com/100 for more information about the NFL100 campaign.

About DoSomething.org:

DoSomething.org is the largest not-for-profit exclusively for young people and social change in the US. We're activating millions of young people to do good in every US area code and in 131 countries. Using our digital platform, members join DoSomething's volunteer and civic action campaigns to make offline impact at scale. Our members have clothed half of America's homeless youth. They've cleaned up 3.7 million cigarette butts. They've run the world's largest youth-led sports equipment drive. And more! Young people have the power and the passion to transform their communities -- we help them get it done. Let's Do This.
