

MARGARET'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

On August 17th the South Sound Sea Hawks got to take part in a 100th Birthday celebration for Margaret Morell-Walkup at the Tacoma Lutheran Retirement Home. Margaret is a huge Seahawks fan and with the help of the Sea Hawks Booster Club, in particular Candy Johns the Booster Club's Liaison with the Seahawks, the Seahawks, along with NFL partner AB InBev, provided a personalized jersey, a card signed by the players, beverages, pint glasses and a whole lot of swag. They also provided an appearance by Blitz, which Margaret and the whole family really enjoyed. It was the Sea Hawks honor and privilege to be part of this special day.

More pictures of the day are on page 3.

Hello Sea Hawks,

WOW!! You certainly know how to make a 100-year-old Seahawk fan feel special. Thank you for the LARGE gift bag full of Seahawk goodies! I will think of the South Sound Sea Hawks and your kindness throughout the season as I enjoy using everything.

You helped to make my birthday extra special and memorable. While I cannot physically join you, I am with you in spirit all the way. And I treasure my membership in the club.

Again, thank you for everything,

MARGARET
GO HAWKS!

Thank you note from Margaret

CENTRAL COUNCIL

Central Council is currently in the process of looking at the Central Council Bylaws and any proposed changes. The proposed changes are:

Add: Mandatory for Chapters to publish, via email to chapter membership, meeting minutes within 10 calendar days of the meeting.

Move: From the Board Secretary duties - 'serve as the chair of the Grievance committee'

Move to the Parliamentarian duties - 'serve as the chair of the Grievance committee'

If you have any questions regarding proposed bylaw changes, please direct them to parliamentarian@seahawkers.org

SEPTEMBER SPEAKER

The speaker for September is Sharon Jenkins, President of the Mary Bridge Brigade.

The Mary Bridge Brigade is an organization of volunteers whose sole purpose is to further the interest of and aid in the support of Mary Bridge Children's Hospital.

Mary Bridge Children's Hospital is a member of MultiCare Health System. It is separately licensed as a children's hospital in the state of Washington, and state designated Level II Pediatric Trauma Center for South Puget Sound and Southwest Washington.

The funds they raise for Mary Bridge Children's provide support for:

- Major medical equipment
- Uncompensated care
- Specialty pediatric programs
- Construction of new clinical facilities
- Improved medical technology

We are having a Play-Doh drive in conjunction with the speaker from Mary Bridge. Costco has a 50 pack for $9.99 and Walmart has 3oz cans for 50¢.

Central Council is also taking nominations for the following positions: President, Secretary, Vice President Liaison & Vice President Entertainment. Nominees must be submitted to VP-At-Large@SeaHawkers.org and Nominees must be present at October 2, 2019 Open Council meeting to present themselves to Central Council. The meeting is at the Old Spaghetti Factory in Tukwila, the meeting starts at 6:00pm, social hour starts at 5:00pm.

The Board and I would like to thank Mary Sodawasser for her support as the Vice President - Publicity for the last 18 months. I have accepted her resignation from the Board effective September 1, 2019.

The Vice President - Publicity is not scheduled for reelection until next year. Consequently, we have appointed David Lopez to fulfill the responsibilities of the Vice President - Publicity in the interim.

Updates to the Sea Hawker embedded email, web site, Face Book and other social media will occur as soon as possible.

Please join us in thanking Mary for her work on the Board and Central Council.

Paul Gates, President, Central Council

BLUE FRIDAY

Unity Church in Tacoma

If you haven't yet heard, the Seahawks in collaboration with the Sea Hawkets, have created a new initiative this season to help take Blue Fridays to the next level and continue to align our Sea Hawkets brand with charitable giving and volunteerism. That said, we are looking to schedule charitable events for 52 Blue Fridays, one for every week of the year. Each chapter will "own" a Friday and choose their volunteer project. Once every chapter completes one Friday, we'll schedule a second, and hopefully a third, and ideally we can keep this going with no end in sight!

The first Blue Friday was held on September 6th before the Bengals game, which the Seahawks and the Sea Hawkets are calling INTERNATIONAL CLEAN UP DAY.

Each chapter is being asked to put in a minimum of 10 man-hours for their project. South Sound Sea Hawkets had a total of 13 people put in a total of 22.75 man-hours of work at the Unity Church in Tacoma.

TOUCHDOWN CITY

There is a new policy at Touchdown City. Everyone now needs a ticket to get in. If you don't have a ticket there is another way to get in. There's a Facebook post on the Sea Hawkets Booster Club page with some details.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Deanna Roe and Sylvie Ward have volunteered for the nominating committee. They will announce the nominees in October and we will vote in November. If you have anyone you wish to nominate email to nominations@southsoundseahawkets.com

CHARITABLE REPORTING

Please turn in your charitable works!!! We didn't have anything for August and I know there are people donating their time out there!!!! I will bring a sample to the South Sound Sea Hawkets meeting that needs to be filled out!!!! There is also a copy attached to the newsletter.

RANDALL MORRIS GOLF TOURNAMENT

South Sound Sea Hawk's Deanna, Ron, LaVada, Lou, Cindi, Debra and Gary

Several members of the South Sound Sea Hawk's volunteered at Randall Morris's 13th Annual Golf Tournament at the Fairwood Golf Club in Renton on Monday, September 9th. Two of the charities benefiting from the golf tournament are Burned Children Recovery Foundation and Mary's Place.

Sue and Marilyn handed out goodie bags and then went to a hole on the course to hand out chicken. Most of the others rode with the celebrities and teams as scorekeepers.

It was a fun day even with the occasional downpour. There was a lot of food on the course and it was fun to interact with the various team members and celebrities.

ADMIT ONE

TICKET RAFFLE

Win Two Tickets to a Seahawks December game. Tickets will be $5 each or 5 for $25. The tickets were donated by Catrina to raise money for charity. She won the tickets at Desmond Trufant's football camp. Let's see how much money we can raise. The money will go to Sunny Sky's Animal Rescue.
