SOUTH SOUND SEA HAWKER'S MEETING

The South Sound Sea Hawks meeting on February 17th was a fun time with our Special Guest Speaker Elise Robinson. She talked about the amazing trip she and her husband Jason Robinson had at the Superbowl.

20 members showed up to show her lots of support. She talked about the Superbowl and all the events she attended. As the Seahawks Fan of the Year, the NFL Honors show was special. Thanks Elise for sharing your experience with all of us.

The chapter voted for Nick Emmanwori as our choice for the Seahawks Rookie of the Year. Cindi Lang will send our vote to the Central Council.

There was a discussion of ways to show support to our new members who have signed up (examples were: small welcome gifts, a welcome committee etc) more information to come.

Sharon Smith-Mitchell passed out magnets, made by Colin Mitchell, to those in attendance as a memento of the Seahawks winning the Superbowl!!

July 18th was proposed as a tentative date for our picnic. Stay tuned for more info.

The meeting ended with some great drawings. Thanks to Syl Ward for donating a few items tonight. Winners were Cindi Lang, Angelina Ayers Lang, Jordan Lang, Aaron Lang and Sharon Smith-Mitchell. Debra Douglass won the Poker Chip Drawing. Congrats to the winners. Next meeting will be March 17th.

FEBRUARY BUNCO

South Sound Sea Hawks first Bunco of the year was on February 22. The bunco raised over $500 for our Charity New Hope. The Potato Bar seemed to be a hit, with lots of toppings for the potatoes. There were also some wonderful prize drawings. Congratulations to Bob Stanton, Trisha Marlene Frey, Robin Raymond Stanton and Mary O'Connor on being the winners for Bunco. Also congratulations to the winners of the raffle prizes. Thanks to everyone who made it out. Sharon Smith-Mitchell was so busy visiting and playing the game, that she totally forgot to take pictures. Oops! Cindi Lang did a great job on the Bunco sheets.
