

South Sound Sea Hawkers

April 16, 2024

Meeting called to order by President Colin Mitchell at 7:05 pm at the Lakewood Ram.

Officers Present: Colin Mitchell, Deanna Roe, Sue Farley, Cindi Lang

Treasurer's

Report: Bank balane is $2199.24. We made $458.00 for St. Francis House at our March bunco. We are fundraising for Tears of Washington at the April 28th Bunco party. The main dishes will be Asian.

Tina Rothert: A card was passed around for everyone to sign for Tina. She was shot three times at a BECU ATM and is at Harborview in Seattle. She is the Central Council secretary.

Banquet: The Sea Hawker's banquet is May 4th. The theme is Culture and Diversity. If you are going bring something or wear something from your heritage.

Draft

Party: Sharon reported that the Draft Party at Clear Water Casino & Resort is on April 25. There are six South Sound members helping with the auction. 42 VIP's are expected.

Sea Hawkers

Banquet: The banquet is May 4th at the Bellevue Hilton. The price is $85.00 and the theme is Culture and Diversity.

Sea Hawker

of the Month: Closes on Friday for January, February and March.

Guest Speaker: Guest speaker was Mike Sando who was with ESPN for 12 years and joined The Athletic in 2019. Mike gave us lots of information and thoughts on the upcoming Draft, Coaches and this year's Season. Lots of questions were asked and many stories were told. He is one of the Hall of Fame voters and he represented some of the players who were up for the Hall of Fame. He represented Cortez Kennedy, Steve Hutchison, Walter Jones and Mike Holmgren. He also explained how the voting worked for players, coaches and contributors. He had several stories to tell about John Clayton, who he said was his mentor.

Mike donated a book that he helped write on the top 100 NFL players. A special drawing was held and Joe Deren won, but he had him autograph it to his daughter-in-law,

Angie.
